

#9

Across

- 3 A standard for connecting peripherals and PCs.
Hint: "scuzzy"
- 5 Former U.S. president (b. 1924) with a background in nuclear physics and the study of reactor technology. Hint: "39"
- 6 Eight-sided polygon
- 9 A character that you are not allowed to use when naming a file
- 10 Twenty-four is the least common multiple of 12 and which number?
- 11 The H in H-menu
- 12 Text message: "By the way"
- 14 Extension for a batch file
- 15 A low-density white metallic element
- 17 GND
- 18 A place online where you can meet other engineers and discuss important topics and ideas
- 19 A PC that features an Intel processor and a Mac operating system

Down

- 1 Field of study that deals with how humans interact and work with machines
- 2 Modem light; "Ready"
- 4 Postal delivery. Hint: mollusk
- 7 The dog Circuit Cellar founder/editorial director Steve Ciarcia has mentioned in his editorials.
- 8 A punctuation mark, number, letter, or symbol
- 10 1,000,000,000,000,000,000 bits
- 13 Common text message: "In my humble opinion"
- 14 A partition, or screen, placed between a microphone and a source of sound
- 16 The IBM computer introduced in 1956 that featured disk storage